SUNY Potsdam – Campus Layout and Parking: www2.potsdam.edu/campusmap (provides a link to the university’s interactive map showing building shapes, names and locations; use tab at top to link to the parking map)

LAYOUT NOTE and WHAT’S NEW: SUNY classroom buildings are largely situated in a square, with the Crumb Library sitting in the center of the quad. At each corner of the quad, you will find an open-arched walkway between the buildings. You can also “cut through” some buildings to get to the other side; and, in many cases, walk through adjacent buildings. There is one large open gap in the quad: a statue of Minerva stands there, looking across Barrington Drive to the main entrance of the Barrington Student Union (where we will have our fall luncheon at the end of this semester, and where we will celebrate our 15th year of SOAR next spring). Opposite to the north-east side of the quad (i.e. across from Kellas, Merritt and Timerman Halls, sits the Crane Scholl of Music, with its own library and classroom buildings, as well as Hosmer Hall and Snell Music Theater. Adjacent to it now, is the new Performing Arts Center (PAC), with its Proscenium Theatre (and box office). Maxcy Hall (sports complex) sits by itself with its own parking areas, just off Outer Main St. You can find the SOAR office two floors above the office of the University Police, in Van Housen Extension. The “Bubble Room” (nicknamed that because of the wide expanse of windows that enclose this comfortable conference room) is situated in the “link” corridor between Van Housen Extension and Van Housen dorm. “Art Workshop” has been reconstituted, and has moved to a new location: Satterlee 225. PARKING NOTES: Please give yourself extra time for parking and walking to your SUNY classrooms. Parking reminders: 1) Write your plate # on the permit; 2) Park ONLY where visitors are permitted; 3) Always display your permit on your review mirror when on campus; 4) Your permit is valid through August 31, 2016.
